(£ 3,840.00 incl. VAT)

Decorate your outdoor space with this anthracite concrete chess table for two people. While enjoying the outdoors, you can rack your brains at this anthracite concrete chess table. A subtle, productive addition to your garden, park or grounds. By using anthracite concrete, this chess table has a beautiful slightly flaming effect incorporated.

Anthracite concrete chess table especially for outdoor use

HeBlad products are specifically made for outdoor use. This anthracite concrete chess table for 2 people is no exception. A beautiful slim, weather-resistant specimen that is a decoration for your outdoor space. Even the natural stone chess field is resistant to the weather. We have integrated the chess field into the concrete top plate, a wear-resistant solution and easy to maintain. The included wooden chess pieces can also take a beating.

Sturdy and stable gaming table for two people
This anthracite concrete chess table for 2 people has a slender appearance, but the weight of 425 kg shows that the chess table is strong and sturdy. With an ideal seat height of 50 cm and a playing surface that is 25 cm higher, this graceful product is wonderful to sit on and comfortable enough for hours of chess enjoyment. The playing top has dimensions of 60 x 60 cm and is 10 cm thick. Taking all dimensions and weights into account, it is logical that this concrete chess table is supplied on a base plate of 149 x 59 cm with a thickness of 10 cm. Everything is made from the same anthracite concrete.

The chess table can be placed in the lawn at cutting height, so that the bottom
